CRCHC WELCOMES RASHIDA MUNGIN, MSN, NP-C

Concord, NC – Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRCHC), is pleased to announce that Rashida Mungin, MSN, NP-C has joined the federally qualified health center as their new Director of Nursing and Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) at McGill Family Medicine, located at 202D McGill Ave., NW, Concord, NC 28025.

Rashida Mungin, MSN, NP-C received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from New York State University. Mungin can also speak Spanish and has a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish Language and Civilization. She started her career as a Medical Surgical Nurse for two and a half years at NYU Langone Medical Center. She then transitioned into a Labor and Delivery Nurse at the same institution for five years. Mungin relocated to Charlotte, NC in 2015 where she continued as a Labor and Delivery Nurse for Atrium Health. That same year, she entered her Masters Program at Simmons University to become a Family Nurse Practitioner. Mungin graduated with honors in 2019 and has since then worked in Family Practice for a private doctor for two years upon joining CRCHC.

“Nursing has always been a calling for me and I am passionate about assisting my patients in reaching their health goals”, says Rashida Mungin, Director of Nursing at CRCHC. “I also have a young son that was born with a congenital heart condition, which allowed me to find another passion... pediatrics.”

“I look forward to growing at CRCHC and making a difference in the community,” says Mungin.

Cabarrus Rowan Community Health Centers, Inc. (CRCHC) is a community-based nonprofit organization founded in 2003 and dedicated to positively impacting the health of the community. CRCHC serves more than 12,000 patients annually by providing quality medical, dental, and behavioral health services, without regard for a patient's ability to pay, and serves as a community resource for eliminating health disparities.
